11. [REDACTED] met with Mr. Rivers, Chairman, House Armed Services Committee, who indicated that he had an appointment with the President. He stated that in the course of his talk with the President he planned to suggest that the President make a statement on CIA, that it was doing its assigned job and was not out of control.

12. [REDACTED] - JGO) Final arrangements were made with Representative Barber B. Conable (R., N. Y.) concerning the members who will be attending the breakfast with the Director Wednesday, 22 September. Mr. Conable was somewhat apologetic that only 17 of the 40-some members were able to accept, since the invitations did not go out until Saturday morning to the membership. Transportation will be provided for some 11 of the members to bring them to headquarters and take them back to the Hill.

13. [REDACTED] - JGO) Mrs. Peggy DeMichele, Administrative Assistant to Senator Michael Mansfield (D., Mont.), called in response to the Director's request of last Friday and advised that Senator Mansfield would be back in the office and would be able to meet with the Director at 3:30 Wednesday, 22 September.
